JACK GARIGLIANO

jack.garigliano@u.northwestern.edu
http://jack-garigliano.github.io

EDUCATION

Northwestern University — Evanston, Illinois
Ph.D. candidate in Political Science — 2020 - 2025 (expected)
- Subfields: American politics, Methods
- Dissertation title: The politics of employment in postindustrial United States
- Committee: Daniel Galvin (chair), Laurel Harbridge-Yong, Jason Seawright, Chloe Thurston

Marquette University — Milwaukee, Wisconsin
M.A. in Political Science — 2017 - 2020
- Comprehensive exam topics: Comparative welfare state development, inequality, political polarization
- Exam advisors: Julia Azari, Richard Friman, Duane Swank

University of Wisconsin - Madison — Madison, Wisconsin
B.A. in English and History — 2006-2010
- Senior thesis topic: Lobbying by 19th-century Wisconsin agricultural organizations

PUBLICATIONS

1. Garigliano, Jack (2024). Class differences in precarity and welfare priorities within Europe's center-left coalition. Party Politics (forthcoming). https://doi.org/10.1177/13540688231199448.

WORKING PAPERS

1. "Public demands from private workplaces: Evidence from the COVID-19 pandemic" Expected journal submission in fall 2024

2. "Democracy at work: Legislating employment relations in a changing labor market."

3. "The primary's effects on public preferences: Evidence from the pre-1972 presidential primaries."

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

American Political Science Association
- Political learning in the US labor market: Evidence from the COVID-19 pandemic. Panel presentation, 2024.
- Democracy at work: Legislating employment relations in a changing labor market. Panel presentation, 2023.
- The dilemma of employment-oriented social policy in a changing labor market. Panel presentation, 2022.
- The primary's effects on public preferences: Evidence from the pre-1972 presidential primaries. Panel presentation, 2021.

Midwest Political Science Association
- Power asymmetry in the US labor market and its impact on political participation. Panel presentation, 2024
- Inside (and outside) jobs: US policy and party responsiveness in a changing labor market. Panel presentation, 2023
- Redistributive paradigms and their impact on left party support. Panel presentation, 2022

Conference on Policy Process Research (COPPR)
- The public effects of private subsidies in the US welfare state. Panel presentation, 2024

Workshops

- Consortium for the American Political Economy (CAPE) Summer Academy. Invited participant, 2023.
- Northwestern University Gender and American Political Economy Workshop. Discussant, 2023.
- Northwestern University Race and American Political Economy Workshop. Invited participant, 2022.

GRANTS AND AWARDS

External
• Russell Sage Foundation Dissertation Research Grant ($10,000)	2024
• APSA Centennial Center Research Grant ($2,400)	2024
• Consortium for the American Political Economy small grants program ($4,000)	2024

Internal
• Northwestern University Graduate Research Grant ($2,842)	2024
• Minar Memorial Summer Grant ($350)	2022
• Baensch Prize for Best Undergraduate Thesis in Wisconsin History ($500)	2010

RESEARCH POSITIONS

Research assistant | Institute for Policy Research (with Dan Galvin)   2022.09 - 2023.03
- Compiled a database on state-level employment laws
- Finalized academic book proofs

TEACHING POSITIONS

Teaching assistant | Northwestern University   2021.09 - 2022.03
                                                   2023.09 - 2024.06

• POSC 406: Quantitative Causal Inference (Graduate level)	Spring 2024
• POSC 405: Linear Models (Graduate level)	Winter 2024
• POSC 210: Introduction to Empirical Methods	Fall 2024
	Spring 2023
• POSC 220: American Government and Politics	Spring 2022
• POSC 332: Constitutional Law I	Winter 2022
• POSC 250: Introduction to Comparative Politics	Fall 2021

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

American Politics: Political economy, public policy, labor, race, inequality, organizing, political participation, political parties

Comparative Politics: European politics, welfare states, social democracy, labor market insiders/outsiders, political parties

Methodology: Research design, mixed methods, surveys, natural experiments, text as data

SERVICE

Reviewer for: Journal of Politics   2023.07
                                          2023.11

Teaching Committee, Northwestern Political Science Department   2023.09 - 2024.06

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE	Microsoft News	Redmond, Washington
	Homepage Editor	2013.02 - 2020.06

- Programmed daily news stories appearing on Internet Explorer and Edge browsers, as well as other landing pages
- Analyzed traffic data to identify trends in the audience's interest in news stories, lifestyle features, seasonal events, and other topics, making programming recommendations to leadership team

Q13 FOX News	Seattle, Washington
Digital Producer/Web Reporter	2012.08 - 2012.11

- Wrote news articles for local station's website based on newsroom sources, ensured copy met editorial standards