

EDUCATION	Northwestern University	Evanston, Illinois
	Ph.D. candidate in Political Science	2020 - 2025 (expected)
	• Subfields: American politics, Methods • Dissertation title: The Politics of Employment in Postindustrial United States • Committee: Daniel Galvin (chair), Laurel Harbridge-Yong, Jason Seawright, Chloe Thurston
	Marquette University	Milwaukee, Wisconsin
	M.A. in Political Science	2017 - 2020
	• Comprehensive exam topics: Comparative welfare state development, inequality, political polarization • Exam advisors: Julia Azari, Richard Friman, Duane Swank
	University of Wisconsin - Madison	Madison, Wisconsin
	B.A. in English and History	2006-2010
	• Senior thesis topic: Lobbying by 19th-century Wisconsin agricultural organizations
PUBLICATIONS	1. Garigliano, Jack (2025). Class differences in precarity and welfare priorities within Europe's center-left coalition. Party Politics 31(3): 438-450. https://doi.org/10.1177/13540688231199448.
WORKING PAPERS	1. "Low-wage work and political participation in the American labor market." Job market paper 2. "When does work motivate political participation? A study of essential workers during COVID-19" Under review 3. "Democracy at work: Legislating employment relations in a changing labor market." 4. "The primary's effects on public preferences: Evidence from the pre-1972 presidential primaries."
GRANTS AND AWARDS	External
	• Russell Sage Foundation Dissertation Research Grant ($10,000)	2024
	• APSA Centennial Center Research Grant ($2,400)	2024
	• Consortium for the American Political Economy small grants program ($4,000)	2024
	Internal
	• Northwestern University Graduate Research Grant ($2,842)	2024
	• Minar Memorial Summer Grant ($350)	2022
	• Baensch Prize for Best Undergraduate Thesis in Wisconsin History ($500)	2010

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

American Political Science Association

- Low-wage work and political behavior in the American fast-food industry, 2025
- Political learning in the US labor market: Evidence from the COVID-19 pandemic. Panel presentation, 2024.
- Democracy at work: Legislating employment relations in a changing labor market. Panel presentation, 2023.
- The dilemma of employment-oriented social policy in a changing labor market. Panel presentation, 2022.
- The primary's effects on public preferences: Evidence from the pre-1972 presidential primaries. Panel presentation, 2021.

Midwest Political Science Association

- Low-wage work and political participation in the American fast-food industry, 2025
- Power asymmetry in the US labor market and its impact on political participation. Panel presentation, 2024
- Inside (and outside) jobs: US policy and party responsiveness in a changing labor market. Panel presentation, 2023
- Redistributive paradigms and their impact on left party support. Panel presentation, 2022

Consortium for the American Political Economy (CAPE) Research Conference

- Low-wage work and political participation in the American fast-food industry. Panel presentation, 2025

Conference on Policy Process Research (COPPR)

- The public effects of private subsidies in the US welfare state. Panel presentation, 2024

Invited workshops

- Economy and Society Summer Conference at Brown University. Invited participant, 2025
- Consortium for the American Political Economy (CAPE) Summer Academy. Invited participant, 2023.
- Northwestern University Gender and American Political Economy Workshop. Discussant, 2023.
- Northwestern University Race and American Political Economy Workshop. Invited participant, 2022.

RESEARCH POSITIONS

- | | |
|---|-------------------|
| Research Fellow Workplace Justice Lab | 2025.08 - Present |
| • Research assistance for WLJ stakeholders on employers' compliance with new legal rules for contract workers | |
| Research assistant Institute for Policy Research | 2026.03 - 2026.06 |
| • Research assistance for Professor Dan Galvin (upcoming) | |
| Research assistant Institute for Policy Research | 2026.01 - 2026.03 |
| • Research assistance for Laurel Harbridge-Yong (upcoming) | |
| Research assistant Institute for Policy Research (with Dan Galvin) | 2022.09 - 2023.03 |
| • Research assistance for Professor Dan Galvin, compiling a database on state-level employment laws | |

TEACHING POSITIONS	Teaching assistant Northwestern University	2021.09 - 2022.03
		2023.09 - 2024.06
	• POSC 406: Quantitative Causal Inference (Graduate level) • POSC 405: Linear Models (Graduate level) • POSC 210: Introduction to Empirical Methods	Spring 2024 Winter 2024 Fall 2024 Spring 2023
	• POSC 220: American Government and Politics • POSC 332: Constitutional Law I • POSC 250: Introduction to Comparative Politics	Spring 2022 Winter 2022 Fall 2021
RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS	American Politics: Political economy, public policy, labor, race, inequality, organizing, political participation, political parties Comparative Politics: European politics, welfare states, social democracy, labor market insiders/outside, political parties Methodology: Research design, mixed methods, surveys, interviews, natural experiments, text as data
SERVICE	Co-convenor, CAPE Junior Working Group	2025.08 - Present
	Teaching Committee, Northwestern Political Science Department	2023.09 - 2024.06
	Reviewer for: Journal of Politics	2023.07, 2023.11
PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE	Microsoft News	Redmond, Washington
	Homepage Editor	2013.02 - 2020.06
	• Programmed daily news stories appearing on Internet Explorer and Edge browsers, as well as other landing pages • Analyzed traffic data to identify trends in the audience's interest in news stories, lifestyle features, seasonal events, and other topics, making programming recommendations to leadership team
	Q13 FOX News	Seattle, Washington
	Digital Producer/Web Reporter	2012.08 - 2012.11
	• Wrote news articles for local station's website based on newsroom sources, ensured copy met editorial standards	